

Says Mining in B.C. Will Revive

Consolidated Plans Expansion in Different Parts of Province This Year

(By E. A. Hagen)

The new year opens with much promise for the mineral industry. After a period of much difficulty, several large metallurgical installations are planned. The Britannia Mining & Smelting Co. has set the ball rolling by letting the first contracts in connection with the installation and equipment of the new concentrating mill at Britannia Beach, with a capacity of 2500 tons a day. The Canadian Northwest Steel Co. of Vancouver has the contract for erection of the structural steel work for the new fire-proof mill building. It is planned to have the mill completed and in operation by next autumn.

Canada Copper Co. expects to resume by spring. Drum Lummon Mine on Douglas Channel, will also be a producer. On Vancouver Island the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. propose to go ahead with the construction of its 500-ton mill at Sunnyside Mine, on Jordan river, and the 250-ton mill at the Old Sport Mine at Elk Lake, with railway and hydro-electric plant at the latter. The Tides water, on the west coast of Vancouver Island, will resume, and has developed important reserves of ore. The new year will therefore see the copper industry back to its old stride, with the largest production in the history of the province.

More Than Restore Gold Mining Industry

The Hedley Gold Mining Company will resume operation of its mill at Hedley. The Premier mine, at Portland Canal, will be operating to full capacity, and perhaps extending its milling operations by the construction of a new mill below the new low-level tunnel. The Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. will go ahead with the first units of its proposed 5000-ton mill to treat the Rossland ore prior to the smelting operation. These plants will eventually increase gold output by between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 a year, and restore the gold mining industry to more than its former importance, while new copper operations will increase the proportion of the gold output, which is a by-product of the copper mines.

Silver, Lead and Zinc Will Surpass Records

Slocan and Ainsworth mines will be operating to full capacity, with the Noble Five and Silversmith mills as additions to the former plants. The Consolidated will begin its large hydro-electric development at Skookumchuck, south of Columbia Lake, and also the installation of the first units of its 20,000-ton mill, planned for the Sullivan Mine in East Kootenay. The Cronin Mine, in the Babine, will probably become the largest silver producer in the province. The copper mines will add their quota to the silver product as a by-product of their ores. The production of silver, lead and zinc will therefore, in the near future, far surpass anything on record in the past.

These large plants, with the Granby mill at Anxox, will provide for the treatment of 40,000 tons of ore a day, or four times the record tonnage hitherto. They will give employment to an army of 20,000 men, and double the value of the mineral production over its record year of high prices for the metals.

Achieved Much Under Adverse Conditions

This year, with the p Last year, with the poorest mineral production in point of value in seven years, the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. showed what can be accomplished even under the most adverse condition of market and operation by mining and smelting about 400,000 tons of ore, the largest tonnage on record in the history of the company.

During 1921, mineral production showed a falling off of 25 per cent, as compared with the previous year. Even this is a better showing than has been made by the mining industry of any other country during the past year. Gold production was the lowest of any year for a quarter of a century. Dividends for 1921 are conspicuous by their absence.

"Experience" shown at the Rex this week is a good example of the better type of moral film, which would go a long way towards dispelling any doubt some people harbor in their minds as to whether the screen can be a power for good. Its title is scarcely comprehensive enough to convey what the picture has to show. It is a sort of modernized Pilgrim's Progress put on the screen showing as in an allegory how Youth though directed aright by Ambition and beckoned to by Opportunity, still allows himself to be drawn aside by Pleasure, Intoxication, Fashion, Conceit and all the other attributes of human nature, vain and unsatisfying, and dragged down to the low-

SALVATION ARMY GIVES CHRISTMAS DINNER TO CHILDREN LAST WEEK

The Salvation Army Hall in Cranbrook was the scene of a very happy time with the children on Thursday, December 29th, when fifty children, many of whom were poor, belonging to the Sunday School, and other children also, sat down to a Christmas turkey dinner.

After the children were well filled and those who had waited on them had also had a cup of tea, the children came in for a bright evening of parlor games, etc., which was concluded by a Christmas Tree when every child in the building received a well filled bag of sweets and fruit. It would have been a pleasing sight to those who gave so liberally to have dropped in during the dinner and to have seen the many happy faces, and to have heard them carry a vote of thanks to all who had been so kind to them.

Lieutenant Ede, who had planned the occasion, came in for some hearty cheers from the boys and girls, who seemed to wish that there would be no going home at all that night. On behalf of the Army's work here Lieutenant Ede wishes to thank all, and especially the establishments which supplied the turkeys and meat, all that was contributed, both eatables and practical help, all of which made the dinner and evening such a splendid success.

ANNUAL MEETING OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ON TUESDAY LAST

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday afternoon of this week in the Parish Hall. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President Mrs. F. Constantine
1st Vice-Pres. Mrs. Leaman
2nd Vice-Pres. Mrs. O'Hearn
Secretary Mrs. John Hesley
Treasurer Mrs. Geo. Taylor
Directors Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Mirams

The various reports showed 1921 to have been a very successful year for the Institute. Mrs. Wallace contributed two vocal solos towards the afternoon's program, and a reading was also given by Miss Maystre. Fifty members were present.

DISCONTINUE WORK OF NAVY LEAGUE; WILL MERGE INTO SCOUTS

In November, 1920, Mr. H. F. Helmsing visited Cranbrook in the interests of the Navy League of Canada or Canada and within a very few days the Cranbrook branch was formed.

The necessary funds to meet current expenses were immediately forthcoming from a few who were interested in the League work and no doubt a great many would have been pleased to contribute had it been found that further assistance was required, two life memberships, $200, and the sum of $189.15 from Miss Wallinger and Miss Blankenbach gave the League a good start financially.

The donation from Miss Wallinger and Miss Blankenbach was the net sum received from an entertainment given after many weeks of hard work in preparation, and the executive take this opportunity of thanking all those who so willingly contributed various amounts.

After the branch was formed it was necessary to have a number of instructors, a number volunteered, Captain Martin Harris, H. Leroy Harrison, Mr. Clark, the Y.M.C.A. secretary, A. Leigh, F. H. Pym, W. M. Harris and F. G. Morris, and the brunt of the instructional work was finally borne by Captain Harris, H. Leroy Harrison, A. Leigh and J. M. Clark.

Semaphore, the compass and various physical exercises were taught to about thirty boys for several months, the boys having the use of the plunge in the Recreation Club every Saturday morning in addition to the training Friday night.

By April the boys all showed a great improvement and a few became very proficient in the semaphore and compass work, and careful note had been made of three or four with the idea of finally selecting two who were to attend the summer school of instruction at Victoria. The special instruction would probably have qualified the boys as instructors and at the same time they would have had the details of a great deal of the work that could only be had by taking such a course.

Unfortunately the Victoria branch were not able to put on the course as originally proposed, with the result that the boys were disappointed.

Police Report For Past Year

Convictions and Fines Increase Over Last Year; Drops Off in Last Few Months

The following is a copy of the report for the year 1921 submitted by Chief of Police D. Halcrow to the Police Commission at their final meeting for the year held this week:

Jan. 3rd, 1922.
His Worship Mayor Genest and Police Commissioners.

For your information and approval I have much pleasure in herewith submitting my annual report for the year ending December 31st, 1921.

There were 231 persons brought before the Court during the year, and a total of $3,868.80 collected in fines. From outside Police Departments $132.75 was received for keep of prisoners. The pound collections amounted to $260.50. Dog licenses contributed a further sum of $96.25, making a total of $4,358.30.

In my statistical report attached it will be observed that from the advent of the enforcement of the Liquor Control Act there has been a decrease in offenses of all classes, particularly that of drunkenness. From the geographical situation of the city we have had a considerable number of persons in the Vagrancy class, usually migrating from the eastern provinces in quest of warmer climes.

It is to be hoped that a greater appreciation of the benefits of the Liquor law, on the part of the public in general and persons who are addicted to bootlegging in particular, that the necessity of inflicting goal sentences will be obviated.

In conclusion I take this opportunity to thank the Police Commissioners, members of the Civic Administration, business men of the city and all classes of the community for their hearty co-operation in the enforcement of law and order.

All of which I respectfully submit. Your obedient servant,
DAV. HALCROW,
Chief Constable.

UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL TABLET AT KNOX CHURCH SUNDAY NEXT

The permanent Honor Roll and Memorial Tablet for the Presbyterian Church, presented by the Ladies Aid of the congregation, will be unveiled at the morning service in Knox Church on Sunday next, January 8th. The little daughter of one of the men who paid the supreme sacrifice, will draw aside the flag which is at present draping the memorial. Her guard of honor will be composed of returned men belonging to the congregation and representatives from the G.W. V. A. Praise selections appealing to young and old, special music by the choir, and an address suitable to the occasion will make this impressive service one long to be remembered.

CRANBROOK MUSICAL SOCIETY

The regular practice of the Society was held on Tuesday evening in the 'Y' and was one of the most satisfactory yet held. There was a representative turnout of players who were all anxious to carry on the good work of the organization.

The practice was followed by an important business session at which interesting discussions took place in regards to finance, and other problems of the Society. It was pointed out that the Society was not a money-making organization, but still it is necessary to raise enough money to offset current expenses. It was therefore decided to open a list of honorary members and a committee was appointed composed of Messrs. T. South, D. Kay and W. G. Thompson. Persons interested in the work and objects of the Society and willing to contribute $1.00 per month to that end are urged to communicate with any of the above named gentlemen, or with the secretary, Mr. F. J. Lodge.

It was decided to proceed at once with the formation of a Choral branch of the Society and practices will be commenced in the near future.

It was also decided to take up another branch in the musical line, viz., the re-formation of the city band. All old players are requested to get in touch with the Director, Mr. Lee Edwards, who would be pleased to help anyone else who is desirous of taking up band work.

Arrangements were made for the first concert of the Society which will be held in the Auditorium Friday, Feb. 24th, but further particulars will be published later. The orchestra is now working on the program and it can be promised that the music will be of the finest ever heard in Cranbrook, and the entire concert will be given by local talent. The enthusiastic support of all should be accorded this effort, and everyone is asked to keep a look out for further details.

FARMER-LABOR RALLY PROVED INTERESTING EVENT

The Farmer-Labor Party held a rally in the G. W. V. A. Hall on Wednesday evening this week which was well attended by both ladies and gentlemen. Mr. G. T. Moir occupied the chair and conducted the affairs of the evening in a very pleasing manner.

Every number on the program was

School By-Law Should be Passed

Increase in Taxation Slight Compared With Advantages To Be Gained

Below will be seen a plan of the proposed addition to the Central School building, for which the ratepayers will be asked to sanction a by-law next Thursday. Study of the plans and the explanation will make it quite clear as to what the intentions of the school board are. Efforts are being made to ascertain the feeling of the majority of the ratepayers on the question, and a canvass has been going on towards this end. It is pointed out that the extra taxation called for under the bylaw would only amount to about $2.50 per $1,000 of assessment, which is not an excessive amount. In any case extra money will have to be had for the additional quarters to be found so that to turn the by-law down on the score of economy will be poor business for the ratepayers. Several special meetings of the school board have been held recently to discuss this and other matters, and to wind up business for the year.

TRAINMEN'S BALL LAST FRIDAY NIGHT A MERRY EVENT

Buckley Lodge No. 555 and Queen Alexandra Lodge No. 424 worked in unison on Friday last and prepared to give everyone a real good time at their annual joint ball in the Auditorium. Judging from the feeling and good humor of those present their aims were amply fulfilled. The hall was tastefully decorated in the colors of the order, and this part of the arrangements was said to surpass anything previously attempted. Streamers of red, white and green bunting encircled a wheel of Japanese lanterns mingled with bells and balloons hung from the ceiling, while the walls were draped with bunting and flags. Above the stage a large sign of colored lights with the words "Happy New Year" hung, and the stage was also decorated with colored lights and evergreens. The whole hall was a mass of color, and it was remarked by many present that it was the prettiest yet.

A feature of the ball was the presence of so many from outside towns. The trainmen claim a large crowd from outside points this year than any previous year, although they say there were not quite so many old time Cranbrook people. Every town from Lethbridge to Sirdar was represented, and it was remarked at this particular ball that one always met old friends. This was especially the case on Friday night, some of those in attendance not having met since the last New Year's Ball, and the good feeling of meeting again and giving the wish of a happy new year helped towards having a real good time.

Once the music struck up it was impossible to keep your feet still. There was harmony, time and pep in every number played by the Banff Orchestra. Mr. Brailley, of the Star Theatre orchestra very ably assisted the orchestra with his violin, and Mr. Robinson, also of the Star, played for the extras during the supper interval, and was called upon for encores every time. Owing to the fact that it still lacked a day to the passing of the old year, it was not found feasible to work in the customary midnight feature that usually ushers in the new year, but the new year spirit was there, nevertheless.

The committees responsible for the success of the function were: J. E. Pettigrew, H. Hall, R. W. Leonard, P. C. Hartnell, A. Wallace, R. Proc-

Who Will Be Mayor for 1922?

Possible Three Candidates May Present Themselves on Election Day

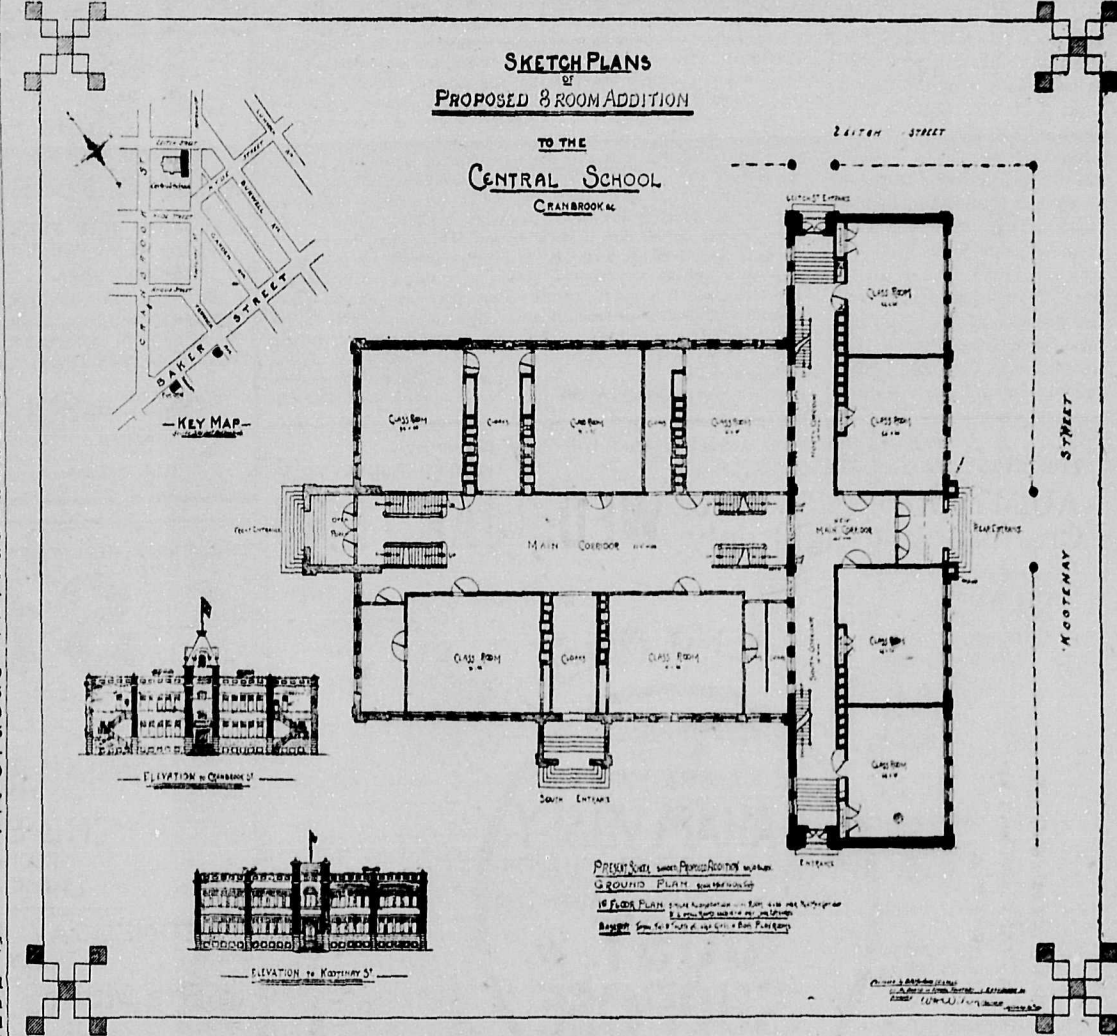

Who will be Mayor of Cranbrook for 1922? It now seems certain that there will be a contest, and it may be that three names will be before the electors on Thursday next, polling day. Mayor Genest stated to the Herald that he had not finally decided whether to run again or not, but he has already been urged by friends to run for a third term. A. J. Balmont has also definitely yielded to the desires of supporters, and will again be in the running. Mr. Balmont has had six years' aldermanic experience here, and two years on the police commission, which it is felt qualify him to discharge the duties quite capably. Mr. W. S. Santo, a member of the present city council may also be a candidate. Friends of Mr. Santo feel that he has the time to give to civic affairs, and that he should allow himself to come before the people as a candidate.

Many people will learn with regret that it is the desire of Mr. W. H. Wilson to relinquish his connection with the school board, and without question he will have to withstand strong pressure to maintain his present determination not to be a candidate again. For the police commissioner Messrs. J. J. Jackson and W. F. Doran are possibilities, both having been asked to allow themselves to run for the vacancy. Mr. A. C. Shankland, the retiring commissioner, has not yet made up his mind as to whether or not he will again be a candidate, though he has been urged by friends to do so. Mr. C. J. Little has been approached to allow himself to be nominated as alderman and most of the former aldermen are understood to be willing to allow themselves to stand again if it is desired.

Mrs. Hall of Bull River is a visitor in the city.

Mr. H. Hewson, C. Ratcliffe, J. H. Cameron, G. Lacey, chairman. Music, Mrs. A. Wallace, G. Sullivan. Supper, the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. C. N. Parker, Mrs. P. C. Hartnell, and Mrs. P. Dallas, Convenors.

Central School Building as it will Appear with Proposed Addition

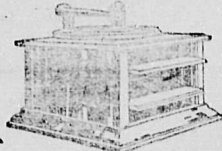

In order to understand the above plans of the proposed addition to the Central School, a small key plan will be seen in the left hand top corner which shows the proposed addition at the rear of the present school in solid black, making a building in the shape of the letter T with the present school. The front of the addition faces on Kootenay Street, and a small sketch of the elevation is shown at the bottom left hand corner. It is proposed to carry out the exterior similar to the present building, with concrete faced blocks and pressed brick. Directly above the elevation will be seen a view of the building as it will look from Cranbrook street, the middle portion being the elevation of the present school with the tower in the centre, and the portion at each end shows what will be seen of the new part from Cranbrook street, with the two fire-escapes at each end. In the main plan will be seen the classroom arrangement of the present school on the ground floor. The four new classrooms with the 10 foot corridor, 2 stairways and 2 side entrances of the proposed addition are shown in solid black. A similar arrangement of four classrooms is allowed for on the first floor with the addition of two small rooms, one over each side entrance, for use of the teachers, or stores, etc. Also over the main new corridor entrance from Kootenay street will be a large room 16 feet by 26 feet to be used as a library, having sliding partitions between the classrooms on each side, making it possible for this room and the two central classrooms to be converted into one large room

76 by 26 feet for use when lectures. The proposed addition when fully completed and equipped will provide for 300 more pupils allowing about 38 scholars to each room. It is the most economical addition of eight rooms which is possible to the present Central School and will provide accommodation in the four rooms downstairs for the immediate necessity of the primary and junior classes and will assure Cranbrook of sufficient school accommodation for some time to come.

CRANBROOK, BRITISH COLUMBIA
THURSDAY, JAN. 5th, 1922

THE PROPER COURSE

The people of East Kootenay in general, of whatever political faith, will commend the decision arrived at this week by the Liberal party leaders, not to sanction the member-elect stepping down to make room for a cabinet aspirant. If Hon. Mackenzie King wanted to include a B. C. member of the house of commons in his cabinet, there was one elected in this riding that many believe could have filled the requirements with credit, and just as ably as anyone else, in the B. C. government or out of it. The spectacle of a minister of the crown, a member of the provincial government, putting himself in the position of trying to get the laurels bestowed on one man transferred to himself does not add dignity nor prestige to his own position. It is no wonder that the impression is growing that all is not well at Victoria. What has given rise to all the restlessness there? Premier Oliver already has a number of by-elections to face which will be extremely critical for him, and why should members of the cabinet be willing to aggravate the situation still more? There must be a reason, which will likely become apparent after the big Liberal party gathering at the coast this month.

Here's how the situation appears to a prominent Toronto daily. Probably this represents an extreme view in some respects, but it indicates how an episode such as this tends to react to the detriment of the B. C. government.

"Hon. J. H. King, of British Columbia, of whom excellent reports are heard on all sides, would have been in the cabinet, if one or two difficulties could have been surmounted. Firstly, the Oliver government, of which he is a member, is in dire straits, and the wires have brought plaintive wails entreating him to stay in the local cabinet and not force a dangerous by-election. Then the newly elected Liberal members in British Columbia have shown no desperate anxiety to resign and make room for Dr. King, and want definite guarantees of adequate compensation for their sacrifices. Dr. King has gone home with the purpose of removing these obstacles to his migration to the federal sphere and if he succeeds he will, as the Premier's statement foreshadows, replace Senator Bostock as minister of public works. Both from a political and administrative point of view, Dr. King will be a real acquisition to the cabinet, and is infinitely preferable to two other aspirants."

The fact remains that Mr. Beattie's position in this riding, though he has not yet attained the dignity some would like to see conferred on him, stronger than if he had lent himself to any such proposals as it would seem were on foot this week.

FROM THE VIEW-POINT OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES

A Prophecy Fulfilled

When Grover Cleveland twisted the British lion's tail, in a dispute over a Venezuelan boundary, so vigorously that war seemed imminent, little attention was paid to Arthur Balfour's prophecy of a new British-American doctrine that would some day be formulated. Said Mr. Balfour, speaking in the British parliament in that crucial hour that is now twenty-five years behind us: "The time will come, the time must come, when some one, some statesman more fortunate even than President Monroe, will lay down the doctrine that between English-speaking peoples war is impossible." Is Mr. Balfour one of those rare prophets who live to see their prophecy fulfilled?—Egyptian Mail.

Not a Strong Cabinet

"After the collapse of the negotiations with Mr. Crerar, the character of Mr. King's ministry, as announced is a surprise. It is an orthodox Liberal cabinet, seemingly solid in spots, seemingly feeble in others, but, with the exception of possible menace to the national railways from certain of its members, a ministry not likely to visit injury on Canada by rash experiments in Radicalism. . . . Summing up, we think it can be said without unfairness that it is not a strong cabinet."

"But cabinets, like all other institutions, must be judged by the future, not by the past. In this case, a new government fresh from the people is setting out to grapple with tremendous problems, and it is not the task of a loyal Canadian to condemn it without trial."—Ottawa Journal.

As Britain Sees Us

Political power in Canada has rested

ed in the past mainly in the hands of the industrial east. There lay the money, the political energy, the voting strength. A premier who could reckon, as could Laurier, on the cordiality of the big business interests and the devotion of Quebec had little else to trouble about. But the centre of power has begun to shift. Politics in Canada are stepping westward. The farmers of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, who fought so vigorously in the "reciprocity" election of 1911 without political organization, have since then grown into an organized political force that can menace its forerunners. The "country party" in most lands has stood for conservatism. In Canada it stands for alliance with Labor. In the Farmers' party the old-fashioned "right" and the new-fashioned "left" in politics meet. Its return in numbers to Ottawa cannot but make for interesting developments in Canada's history.—Manchester Guardian.

ELECTION WITHIN THREE MONTHS AT VICTORIA, SAYS GREEN

Senator Believes Oliver Will Choose This Rather Than Risk By-Election

Senator R. F. Green, speaking before the Victoria Conservative Association last Friday night, predicted the announcement of a provincial election within the next three months. He said that besides the two by-elections necessary to fill the seats of Dr. W. O. Rose in Nelson and M. A. Macdonald in Vancouver, a by-election is involved in the resignation of Attorney-General Farris.

Senator Green asserted that on top of these, the Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, is to be taken into the Dominion cabinet as the minister from British Columbia, as Senator Bostock is to be appointed Speaker of the Senate, and is only holding the office of minister of public works until arrangements can be made to get Dr. King a seat in British Columbia.

The Senator declared that with these government changes facing Premier Oliver and the fact that he has called a reorganization meeting for January, the Premier will call a general election rather than go in for these by-elections.

During his speech he announced that Conservatives of the province would hold a convention early in the new year, when the name of National-Liberal-Conservative will give place to the good old name Conservative. He predicted that this would be the start of a movement which would spread all over Canada to bring about the revival of the Conservative party.

Canon Hinchcliffe, the Conservative member for Victoria, said that he always considered the sessional indemnity paid members not in the nature of a salary, but rather intended to permit members to travel and study conditions and fit themselves for sessional duties. With that idea the canon said he had used his indemnity to travel over British Columbia. When he had finished his season's travelling he had only $441 left. This money he placed in the hands of his agent, who deducted his income tax and then paid the rest, about an even $400, back to the government.

"THE SCOFFER" OPENS BIG WEEK PROGRAM AT STAR MONDAY

Merit pervades the whole atmosphere of Allan Dwan's production of "The Scoffer," which opens an engagement at the Star theatre Monday and which may well be listed as one of the very best photodramas of the current season.

While the play in itself is unusual in its power to command undivided attention, artistic acting on the part of no less than ten brilliant photoplayers is an outstanding feature worthy of praise. Mary Thurcan, James Kirkwood and Noah Beery share first honors. At times the dramatic acting reaches great heights and inspires to applause.

The story which is cleverly evolved in "The Scoffer" concerns the misfortunes of one Dr. Stannard Wayne, who through the villainous plotting of his bosom friend, Dr. Richards, is forced to serve a five year prison term for an illegal operation performed by Richards. Dr. Wayne had been an intensely religious man, but emerges from prison a scoffer because he rankles at injustice. In his search for peace and forgetfulness Wayne goes to a sparsely settled section of the country, but his long journey is in vain, for he stumbles on to his

MARY PICKFORD'S NEXT PICTURE A NEW CHARACTERIZATION

Mary Pickford's latest United Artists production, "The Love Light," which will be seen at the Tex theatre on Monday and Tuesday next, is an entirely different story and an absolutely new characterization than anything in which the World's Sweetheart has heretofore appeared.

Ever since Mary Pickford has had her own producing organization and could dictate as to the type of photoplay in which she was to appear, she has adopted the policy of never adhering entirely to one line of arts, not only because she believes that the public like variety, but because she believes the different lines of characters tend to increase her ability as an artist.

"The Love Light" has unusual interest owing to the fact that the idea was worked out while Miss Pickford was on her honeymoon. She met Frances Marion in Italy, also on her honeymoon, and the two worked out the story sitting on a high rock overlooking the Adriatic and it was in Italy they secured many of the properties and several of the players who support Miss Pickford. The players and properties were brought all the way from southern Europe to California where the Italian settings were minutely reproduced from photographs taken by the two.

Miss Pickford has appeared in comedy-dramas but never in an emotional drama of the type of "The Love Light," and it was only after careful study and deliberate consideration that she felt herself equal to the tremendous role she plays in this story. Miss Pickford has surrounded herself with a splendid cast, which includes such artists as Jean De Briac, for several years leading man to Sarah Bernhardt, Raymond Bloomer, Edward Phillips, Albert Prescott, Evelyn Duno, who played with Miss Pickford in "Little Peppina," but who had returned to Italy to play important Italian roles, and Geo. Rigas.

MOTHER! QUICK, GIVE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP FOR CHILD'S BOWELS

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

"THE DARK MIRROR" WITH DOROTHY DALTON AT REX NEXT WEEK

A photoplay that is remarkable for its unusual character and for the skillful performance of Dorothy Dalton in two vividly contrasted roles will be on view at the Rex theatre Wednesday and Thursday next week. It is "The Dark Mirror," produced by Thomas H. Ince from Louis Joseph Vance's popular novel of the same name.

The story involves New York's "upper ten" and also the worst haunts of the underworld. As Priscilla Maine, a society girl, Miss Dalton is troubled with strange visions, which she confides to her admirer, Doctor Fosdick. As if to make these dreams come true, she is mistaken for Nora O'Moore, a belle of the Bowery, and kidnapped by a gang of thugs. Thrilling adventures follow, involving the drowning of the real Nora O'Moore and the narrow escape of Priscilla from a similar fate. But she finally comes through her experiences safely.

The picture is an ideal vehicle for Miss Dalton, giving her ample opportunity to display her emotional prowess. Huntley Gordon is all that one could wish as Doctor Fosdick, the hero. Pedro de Cordoba and Walter Noel are also in the cast. The photoplay was produced by Thomas H. Ince and is a Paramount Arteract feature.

"JUST SUPPOSE" BRIGHT COMEDY HERE NEXT WEEK

Seats will be placed on sale next Saturday, January 7th, at the Beattie-Noble Drug Store for the coming engagement of "Just Suppose", the comedy romance based on the recent visit of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, that Edward H. Robins will present for a special engagement of one night, Wednesday, January 11th.

"Just Suppose" must not be classed as in the ordinary comedy either in theme or construction. The story is written around the personage of the most popular young man in the world today, H. R. H. The Prince of Wales. The company selected by Mr. Robins to portray the different roles have all been chosen not only for their personal appearance to fit the part for which they have been cast, but also for their ability to play the part. The entire company that will be seen here is identically the same as presented at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, Toronto, during the record breaking run last summer of "Just Suppose" at this popular playhouse. Some of the most promising of present day English actors have been brought to Canada just to play the different roles of the comedy. Graham Velsey will be seen as the Prince of Wales, in the role of Bubbles will be Norman Cope, understudy to Sir John Martin Harvey during the latter's recent tour of Canada, Walter Howe, who has appeared in every quarter of the globe where there is an English theatre will be the British Ambassador to Washington of the comedy, while Murray Bennett has been brought out to play the role of the young southern lad. Kathleen Wallace, so well known to both the movie fans and dramatic followers, is the southern girl with whom the Prince falls in love, while as her grandmother, Mrs. Julia Hurley, the oldest American actress new before the public will be seen. Thomas McKnight, Walter Ainslie, and Harry P. Young, just to mention a few others that will be seen who have important roles.

Quebec, Que.—A net total of $28,325.50 will be distributed between the Disabled Soldiers' Employment Association of Montreal and the Children's League of Paris as the result of collections from the sale of poppies on Armistice Day in the province.

SKY PILOT

A cattle stampede, so realistic that even the most blasé of Broadway's motion picture fans were moved to applause, is a feature of "The Sky Pilot," which will be shown beginning Friday next for a two-day engagement at the Star Theatre.

Since the beginning of motion pictures, directors have attempted to reach the superlative in making their audiences thrill with the emotions of fear and suspense; and many times have they succeeded. But never, it is declared, has the equal of King Vidor's striking stampede scenes been al-loyed with celluloid. Four thousand head of cattle in a mad lunge toward the camera provide dramatic tension that stands in a place by itself in motion picture production.

In order to film these scenes it was necessary to "plant" the cameras in an eight-foot-deep pit. Nine differ-

FIFTY YEARS IN THE RUNNING; DIAMOND DYES
 STILL GOING STRONG

Somebody out of touch with truth, once said there is no sentiment in business. Another greater in wisdom, declared: "They profit most who serve best."

All this year a concern that helped put Burlington, Vermont, on the map of national business, is celebrating fifty years of successful service to the womanhood of the world. "Diamond Dyes" is half a century old and they are having a series of happy episodes to make the anniversary a noteworthy one.

"Diamond Dyes" is a heroic example of the power of advertising, for the plant of small beginnings now covers a city block. The business was built on "making good" the advertising that has made "Diamond Dyes" a household. Possibly the greatest asset of this proved aid to economy is the good will of families that runs through generations. Young women tell that their mothers and grandmothers before them, were Diamond Dye enthusiasts. They like the Diamond "service plan" which makes it clear that for a few cents it is easy to "dye old things new."

The Wells & Richardson people are going to make the golden jubilee of Diamond Dyes nation wide. They will do this by the biggest newspaper advertising appropriation ever made in the fifty years of service.

ent cameras and cameramen were called upon for the filming.

Featured in "The Sky Pilot" are Coleen Moore, John Bowers, David
 Butler and Harry Todd. The story was taken from Ralph Connor's book of the same title.

CURLING ORGANIZED FOR THE WINTER IN THE WINDERMERE

(Special to The Herald)

Invermere, B.C., Dec. 31, 1921.—
 The short sharp wind of cold weather has given greater impetus to the curling game in this district than has been for many a year. The enthusiasts of the district foregathered recently and revived for the winter the Windermere District Curling Association. This comprises three rinks from Atholmer, three from Wilmer and four from this place. Ice has been made good on the huge rink at Atholmer and all arrangements are perfected for the opening of the bonspiel on New Year's day. After the events in this contest have been played off then the individual rinks will come down to trials of skill amongst themselves.

Former officers of the Canadian Militia or Canadian Expeditionary Force now resident in the province of British Columbia, who have been transferred to the Reserve of Officers, are reminded that they should report in writing to the General Officer Commanding, Military District No. 11, Esquimalt, B.C., not later than the 1st of April, 1922, giving address for the current year, otherwise they will be removed from the Reserve of Officers on 1st September following.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

After a long stay at the hospital, extending over several months, Henry Roper passed away this week on Wednesday. Little is known of him or whether he has any relatives in this country, and it is probable he will be buried here.

W. D. Hill and son Stanley drove to Bull River this week receiving word that Wilbur Hill was laid up. He is now making good progress, but will probably not be working again for some little time.

S. W. Bailey of the Star Theatre has just completed the installation of a new lighting system for the house during the showing of the pictures. The centre lights will throw a diffused pale green, and the side lights a reddish-purple tint, the intention being to use them according to the requirements of the picture. Another effort of the Star to get "atmosphere" to the house to the utmost extent is seen in the addition of an organ to the orchestral accompaniment.

Acting on information received, Provincial Constable Mortimer this week brought in an old trapper named Butler, who was found destitute in his shack near Wattsburg. Acting with promptitude Constable Mortimer reached the man when he was in pretty dire straits and there is no doubt he had been left much longer, aid would have been too late. He was brought in to the hospital suffering from frostbite, and in a general debilitated state.

What if elections come and don't go the way we think they ought; what if we do have to turn night into day to keep abreast of the work; what if we don't cull according to the skip's directions; what does it matter? We can smile through it all, go to it all the harder and be happy, for the last hours of the old year brought to the editorial family circle a new wee baby face, a daughter, born on Friday, December 30th, at the Cottage Hospital.

He will be compelled to be without its use for some weeks yet. Along with E. Howard also of Fort Steele, Mr. Attree made a short trip to Calgary this week.

The war memorial has been put in place on the grounds of the G. W. V. A. grounds, and as soon as the weather conditions permit it is likely an unveiling ceremony will be held. The monument is a very dignified and pleasing memorial, but one cannot help thinking that it seems inadequate to do honor to the soldiers of the Cranbrook district.

Dr. J. H. King and Mr. M. A. MacDonald were visitors in the city for a short time this week, stopping off on their way back to the Coast from Ottawa. In connection with their visit some representations were put up to the local Liberals as to whether it could be arranged to get Dr. King a seat here to clear the way to his inclusion in the Dominion cabinet, but sentiment in the riding is understood to have been unanimous in favor of Mr. Beattie holding the seat he has won.

Judge Thompson this week passed sentence on the two prisoners recently brought up by Constable Mortimer on theft charges. Benj. Teed, pleading guilty to three charges of burglary and being in possession of stolen property, was sentenced to two years on each charge. Heinrich Drier, of Wassa, also pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary and two of being in possession of stolen property. He was given four years on each count, the sentences running concurrently in both cases. Judge Thompson made a strong summing up before passing sentence, pointing to the frequency of petty larceny, and the fact that it had in the last named case particularly, been carried on over a number of years, deliberately and systematically.

Mr. Fred M. Brown, formerly of this city, has been elected president of the British Columbia Greeters, or the association of hotel clerks. Many people will remember Mr. Brown from his association with the former Royal Hotel when it was run by Mr. Van Decar. Mr. Brown has been in the hotel business twenty-five years and is a real old timer. "I liked it," he says "and that's why I stayed with it. I was a chef at the Van Decar Hotel on Main Street, Vancouver, before it became the Cunningham Hotel, but I left that to clerk and I liked it better, perhaps because it's easier work." In his twenty-five years of hotel work Mr. Brown has travelled from Winnipeg to Vancouver.

"But Vancouver is the place I will stay for the rest of my days," he says. Mr. Brown is now clerk at the Martineau Hotel, Granville Street, Vancouver.

On Tuesday of this week Hector Herniman, 17, appeared before His Honor Judge Thompson charged with receiving stolen property. It appeared from the evidence that Herniman was anxious to secure a gramophone, and to achieve his object he broke into and entered the store of W. W. Kilby, the local second hand merchant. Accused pleaded guilty to the offense through his counsel, Mr. G. J. Spreull, and at the same time asked for leniency owing to his youth. Judge Thompson in passing sentence of one year suspended sentence remarked that it was with great reluctance that he gave suspended sentence. A number of the youths in the district appeared to think that suspended sentence was all they could get, but the learned Judge said: "I intend to disabuse their minds of that idea." Herniman will have to report to the police authorities at stated periods.

The Fleishman Cup, coveted by the curlers, still abides in Fernie, but it is not because efforts have not been made to bring it back to Cranbrook. Last Saturday night two rinks went down skipped by J. Milne and E. H. McPhee, and while the latter finished strong, the other rink went down that much and a little more, and the cup stayed home. The rinks were J. Milne, McKenzie Morrison, Lester Chapp, W. Henderson; E. H. McPhee, A. C. Shankland, W. M. Harris, R. Burge. Wednesday of this week two more rinks went down, and the cup is still at Fernie. These rinks were W. F. Cameron, W. D. Gilroy, Jno. Martin and N. A. Wallinger; A. W. Hodgson, F. M. McPherson, C. J. Little and G. Hoggarth.

C. R. C. HOCKEY

The first game of the season was held on Saturday night, December 3rd, when the Wycliffe team came to Cranbrook to give the Cranbrook Recreation Club team a game, which Cranbrook won 4-2.

The first period was scoreless; individual plays were good, but no combination. In the second period H. Bridges scored twice for Cranbrook and Wycliffe still remained scoreless. In the third period Cranbrook again tallied, H. Bridges passing from a scrum near Wycliffe goal to C. Gill, who scored, followed by Wycliffe scoring their first goal from centre ice. The play now speeded up a little more and Cranbrook went through again, F. Bamford scoring off a pass from C. Gill. The final goal went to Wycliffe, which was made by Jim Jones.

Both teams lack combination as there was only occasional passes, but the individual plays were fair and there was very little rough play. Much credit must go to Wycliffe as they played several players who were new to the game. Crowe in goal and little Jim Jones were the backbone of the team. H. Bridges was the most effective man on the Cranbrook team, scoring twice and assisting in another, while Tom Hoggarth played a good game in goal. Mr. Clark of the Y.M.C.A. refereed the game.

On Monday the C. R. C. team played a team made up from the Y. M. C. A. The latter for the most part lacked practice, and the C. R. C. boys had an easy victory by something like 10 to 1.

sult that it was finally decided by the executive that they would not be justified in continuing with the work, and particularly in view of the fact that the Organizing Secretary for the Boy Scouts Association visited Cranbrook at the beginning of November and it was decided that the Scout work could be carried on more successfully in the interior country than Navy League work.

We would like to take this opportunity of thanking the Board of Directors for the privilege granted the boys, the use of the gymnasium and plunge was a great benefit and pleasure and it is to be hoped that the Boy Scouts may have some similar privilege granted by the Recreation Club, for in any case it is all a matter of giving the greatest help to the greatest number of boys, and in addition to the Club and various other advantages, the Fernie branch of the Boy Scouts have very kindly extended an invitation to the Boy Scouts of Cranbrook to join them in their camp near Fernie.
